At The Mission in Scottsdale, the Rhinestone Cowboy is a crispy taro shell taco with steak tartare inside, topped with smoky egg crème, rich magic mushrooms, and sweet leeks. Finally, it's garnished with a spoonful of caviar, a kiss of white chocolate, a drizzle of olive oil and a squeeze of lime, all served with housemade, fiery salsa macha on the side.

"The Rhinestone Cowboy is a playful collision of textures and flavors that come together beautifully," says chef Matt Carter. "The caviar brings a luxurious, unexpected addition, it's something rich with a bit of glamor, we had a lot of fun with this one."
